Trasportation:

How to get there:

We strongly recommend that you use the train to get to the hotel from Fiumicino Airport. It is direct, air conditioned, only first class and takes you over the Rome traffic to the central station in 25 minutes (departures from Fiumicino airport every 30 minutes).

When you collect your baggage, follow the signs in the airport that will lead you to the Train station inside Fiumicino Airport. Ticket machines and Trenitalia counters will be available for you to buy tickets.

If you wish to take a taxi, please carefully follow the instructions below.

By Train: The train transfer from Fiumicino Airport is € 14 per person if you take the 'Leonardo Express' to Rome's Termini station.

Transfer from Ciampino Airport is available with direct connection of buses to Termini station. Another option is to take a local bus to Ciampino station and then take a local train to Termini Station.

Information for trains: www.trenitalia.com

Bus: http://www.terravision.eu/italiano/rome_ciampino.html

By Taxi: in order to avoid any abuse, please only use official taxis that are located outside the terminals 1,2,3. They are white and have a clear code/number on their side with the logo of the Rome Municipality.

You only have to pay fixed taxi fares to/from Rome's airports. The fare to any destination in central Rome and vice versa (and to our hotels and conference venue) is 45€ (one taxi, including luggage) from Fiumicino Airport and 30€ from Ciampino Airport. If you have any doubt regarding the amount required by the taxi, ask the hotel reception to assist you before you pay. They will be able and pleased to check if the regular price has been charged.

From Termini Station - Air Terminal, Main Train and Underground Station to the hotel.
Walk for 50 metres to your hotel exit on your left side (Via Giolitti).

Currency:

Currency is Euros (€). You can exchange money at money transfers located in the surrounding areas near the hotels or at banks and airport/station desks. ATMs available at walking distance from the hotel.
